Southmayd, William, Middletown (mariner). Died December, 1702. Invt. £1085-17-06. Taken 23 February, 1702-3, by John Hamlin, William Sumner and William Whiting.

Court Record, Page 38—2 March, 1702-3: This Court grant Adms. unto Margaret Southmayd, widow, who gave bonds, with Joseph Whiting and Capt. Aaron Cooke, of £500.

Page 47—8 September, 1703: Upon motion of Mrs. Margaret Southmayd this Court do proceed to dist. the sd. estate: To the widow, 1-3 part of personal estate, and 1-3 part of the real estate during her natural life, the remaining part to be distributed equally among the children of the sd. decd. And appoint Capt. John Hamlin, Capt. Nathaniel White and William Whiting to dist. the estate.

(See File.)

Southmayd, John, Waterbury. Know all men by these presents: That I, John Southmayd of Waterbury, in the County of Hartford, sorn to Mr. Wm. Southmayd, late of Middletown, deceased, doe hereby constitute and appoint my loving friend James Wadsworth of Farmington, in the aforesaid County, my true and lawful attorney in my name and behalf to apply himself to the Court of Probates now sitting in Hartford, and then in my name and behalf to move the honored Court for a distribution of the estate my honored father, Mr. Wm. Southmayd aforesd., was possessed of at the time of his decease, that I, the aforesaid John Southmayd, may rescue my portion according to law. And I, the aforesaid John Southmayd, do hereby authorize my aforesaid attorney to use all devices in the law for the obtaining of my proportion of the aforesaid estate, and to remove the case from Court to Court as there shall be occasion. And whatsoever my aforesaid attorney shall lawfully do or cause to be done in the premises I doe here by confirm as if I was personally present. And in witness hereunto I have set to my hand and seal this seventh day of November in the year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and five. In the presence of

John Wadsworth.

JOHN SOUTHMAYD, Ls.

Page 78—8 March, 1705—6: Whereas, John Southmaid of Waterbury, clerk, hath made his application to this Court to have an order made directing the distributors appointed to divide the estate of his late father, Wm. Southmaid of Middletown, decd., to set out to him, the said John Southmaid, his double part or portion of his sd. father's estate. And the sd. distributors appointed have also made application to this Court for direction to be given to them how much to abate from the said John's double part or portion of the said estate for his having been brought up to school learning. This Court, upon consideration of the case, do order and appoint that the said distributors shall abate out of the said John Southmaid's double portion of his said father's estate the sum of £81 according to invt., for his having been kept at learning as aforesd., and then distribute and set out to him so much of the said estate as with that sum and what also he hath already received may make up his double portion thereof. The said Jno. Southmaid (by his attorney, James Wadsworth) appealed from this decree and judgment to the Court of Assistants to be holden at Hartford in May next ensuing. And the sd. James Wadsworth acknowledged himself to stand bound to the Treasury of this County in a recog. of £20 to prosecute the sd. appeal to effect and answer all damages in case he make not his plea good.

Page 184 (Vol. VIII) 5 April, 1714: This Court do appoint Capt. Aaron Cooke of Hartford and Deacon Joseph Rockwell of Middletown to join with Mr. Hamlin and Col. William Whiting, who were with Col. Nathaniel White, decd., who was formerly appointed to dist. the sd. estate. And this Court order the distributors to proceed with the distribution.

Page 230—3 January 1714-15: This Court doth appoint Margaret Southmayd of Middletown to be guardian unto Joseph Southmayd, William Southmayd and Millicent Southmayd, sons and daughter of William Southmayd, late of Middletown, decd. Recog., with Capt. Aaron Cooke of Hartford, £200.

Dist. File, 21 January, 1714-15: To the widow, to John, to Giles, to Allyn, to Margaret, to Anne, to Joseph, to William, to Millicent Southmayd. By John Hamlin, William Whiting and Aaron Cooke.
